Steve

This is a model map sent to me by Nick Demetrious from Loy Yang. I stress this is worst case scenario model and is for planning purposes only, with a time stamp of 0100 an Monday morning

I will spend some time with Nick tomorrow to get better real time modelling as the day goes by.

Just wanted to keep you in the loop. I have not shared this info with Rob Dugan or Dave Shanahan as yet. I prefer to wait and see what the weather does.

The wind is due around lunchtime tomorrow.
