

Brown coal ash and your health

Wed 19 Feb 2014

Posted by

CFA Media

Location:

District 10

Categories:

Community Safety, Incidents - Vehicle / Rescue / Hazmat

Views

1846

Comments

0

The Department of Health has developed an information document in response to community questions and concerns about ash fall out from smoke from the current brown coal fires in the Latrobe Valley, south east of Melbourne.

You can download the PDF here (283kb) or view below.

Brown Coal Ash and Your Health - February 2014 by CFA (Country Fire Authority)