

Appendix B. Overview of recent land use plans for the Latrobe Valley

Table 10-8 summarises the land use plans in relation to the Latrobe Valley.

Table 10-8 – Overview of recent land use plans for the Latrobe Valley

Date	Title	Summary and status
2014	Gippsland Regional Growth Plan	Aims to economic resilience by growing a more diverse economy and building on the region's traditional strengths through new investment, innovation and value-adding. Adopted into Clause – 11.08 Gippsland regional growth Currently implemented into the Latrobe Planning Scheme (Amendment VC106 - 30 May 2014)
2013	Traralgon West Structure Plan	Investigation into opportunities for redevelopment of the Morwell-Traralgon corridor north of the Princes Highway to accommodate future urban growth. Key elements adopted into the Latrobe Planning Scheme
2013	Traralgon Growth Areas Review	Growth Area Framework for Traralgon and surrounding areas including Glengarry and Tyers. Key elements adopted into the Latrobe Planning Scheme
2007	Latrobe Structure Plans	In part aims to promote the responsible care of the built environment and provide clear directions and strategies through consultation with the community ensuring sustainable and balanced development and diversity. Provides strategic planning for the major towns within the Latrobe Valley. Additionally provides initial strategic planning for corridor between Morwell and Traralgon. Adopted into, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Clause 21.03 Built Environment Sustainability</li> <li>• Clause 21.05 Main Towns</li> </ul> Currently implemented into the Latrobe Planning Scheme
2005	Latrobe Valley 2100 Coal Resources Project	Study to assess the potential development of the Latrobe Valley to the end of the century. Review of available coal resources and regional environmental, social and economic impacts of its use and recommends action to protect these coal resources for future use. Public Strategy Document
1999	Latrobe Supply Area - Extractive Industry Interest Areas – Geological Survey of Victoria Technical Record 1999/4.	Planning must consider as relevant Latrobe Supply Area - Extractive Industry Interest Areas – Geological Survey of Victoria Technical Record 1999/4. Adopted into Clause – 14.03 Resource exploration and extraction Currently implemented into the Latrobe Planning Scheme (Amendment C10 - 10 June 2004)

Report on Future Options For Rehabilitating the Hazelwood, Yallourn and Loy Yang Mines in the Latrobe Valley

Date	Title	Summary and status
1988	Land Over Coal and Buffer Area Study (Ministry for Planning and Environment, 1988)	Aims to protect brown coal resource in Central Gippsland, to ensure that changes to the use and development of land overlying coal resource does not compromise the winning or processing of coal. Adopted into Clause - 14.03 Resource exploration and extraction Currently implemented in the Latrobe Planning Scheme.